

Surveyed by Thomas B. Robertson Surveyor of Clay county Indiana March 29th and 30th 1886 at request of Thomas ~~Cullin~~ and consent of Smith Campbell, they being the only parties interested

Corners No 1 A Sand Stone 12 in. Ten chains and five links East of the N.W. corner of the E $\frac{1}{2}$ of the W. $\frac{1}{2}$ of the Section.

Corners No 2. A Sand Stone 12 in. Nine chains and ninetyone and one half Links East of the center of the N.W. quarter of the section

Corners No 3. A Stake One chain and forty eight links East of Cor. No 2

Corners No 4. A Sand Stone 12 in. long. 11 chains and 32 links East of the center of the West $\frac{1}{2}$

Corners No 5. A Sand Stone one chain and forty eight links West of Corner No 4.

Corners No 6. A Sand Stone 12 inches long. Nine chains and Eighty two and one half links East from the center of the South half

Recorded This 7th Day of April A.D. 1886
Thomas B. Robertson Surveyor C. C.